Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 and 3-27 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In regards to the independent claim 1 the prior art found does not teach a projector having a single body that includes the network portion connection, the internal image data generating portion, and the projection portion all in one unit, wherein the network connection portion determines whether the received data is image data or application service data, the ASP data requiring execution of an application program to generate the image data; in combination with all of the other claim limitations.

In regards to the independent claim 23 the prior art found does not teach a projector having a single body that includes the transmitting/receiving device, the internal image data generating device, and the projection display device all in one unit, wherein the transmitting/receiving device determines whether the received data is image data or application service data, the ASP data requiring execution of an application program to generate the image data; in combination with all of the other claim limitations.

In regards to the independent claim 26 the prior art found does not teach a projector having a single body that performs the receiving, the determining, the generating all in one unit, wherein the system determines in the projector whether the received data is image data or application service data, the ASP data requiring execution of an application program to generate the image data; in combination with all of the other claim limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
